Normally, slides will be provided to help with the understanding of material. This class session mostly deals with introductions, some brainstorming, and course planning. Much of the material is in the syllabus, so I won’t duplicate paper (or an electronic equivalent) so that we will avoid cluttering important concepts.

Reading assignment: on Books 24x7

Project Management for Modern Information Systems, Dan Brandon – Chapters 1-3